ADDITIONAL PROGRAM INFORMATION

Waldorf Within Reach: The school is committed to making Waldorf education financially accessible to all families who want to attend. Our online Tuition Estimator gives families the ability to see their tuition level range based on income and other fiscal variables. During the application process, families in all of our 5-day programs – Grade 12 will have the ability to seek further tuition modifications in the form of scholarships in addition to the published scale. The Within Reach Committee will work hard to accommodate all requests and needs. However, being self-funded from our annual budget, our scholarship funds are finite, so please understand that we cannot guarantee that every family will receive the full amount of its requested or needed assistance. Applications for scholarships are available at the Regent Street buildings, and online at the school's website or from the business office at finance@waldorfsaratoga.org.

Deposits: As in previous years, we will continue to automatically roll over enrollment deposits this year to hold a place for your child for the 2023-2024 school year. Families not returning should submit a withdrawal letter to Alexandra Queenan via email (admissions@waldorfsaratoga.org) or via hard copy. Deadlines for notifying the admissions office will be March 15, 2023 for all programs. If you choose not to continue and notify us by this date, the business office will issue you a check returning your tuition deposit after the end of the school year if your account is in good standing with a zero balance. For all other withdrawals, the deposit is forfeited.
